Discover this rare freehold one-bedroom house, tucked away in a popular cul de sac between Tadworth Village and the rolling open spaces of Epsom Downs, home to the world famous Derby.

Perfect as a first time purchase, an easy lock-up and leave bolt hole, or a comfortable downsizing opportunity, this charming home offers exceptional value and a lifestyle of convenience.

The property is approached via a generous front garden, offering clear potential to landscape into an attractive and usable outdoor space, an inviting welcome to your new home. Beside the house is a parking bay, ensuring stress free parking right on your doorstep and with a further allocated parking bay towards the end of the cul de sac, making sure all bases are covered.

Inside, the house is offered with no onward chain and vacant possession, allowing for a smooth and swift move. Stepping through the front door you find yourself in a double aspect living/dining room which directly adjoins the kitchen that has lots of cupboard space for this size of home.

On the first floor is a nicely proportioned double bedroom, which is also double aspect allowing for lots of natural light within this home, as well as fitted wardrobes, an overstairs cupboard, private loft space and a modern white bathroom suite completing this great, small home.

Freehold one bedroom homes are a true rarity in the local market, making this an opportunity not to be missed.

Morston Close is a small, well regarded development positioned perfectly between Tattenham Corner and Tadworth Village, both offering an excellent choice of shops, cafés, and restaurants. For commuters, both areas provide train links to London Bridge, with a journey time of approximately 50 minutes.

In our opinion, this delightful home represents excellent value and must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Whether you're stepping onto the property ladder or searching for a low maintenance retreat, this home stands out as a superb find.
