Situated at the end of the highly desirable and private Carters Road, this exceptional detached home offers a rare balance between town and country living, being perfectly positioned equidistant from Epsom town centre and the open green spaces of Epsom Downs.

Constructed approximately 26 years ago, the property has been thoughtfully and sympathetically updated in recent years, resulting in a beautifully presented and highly flexible home suited equally to families, downsizers, or professional couples.

Occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.13 acres and being the final house on the road, the property enjoys an excellent degree of privacy and seclusion. It is approached via a five-bar gate leading to a gated driveway that provides ample secure parking, in addition to a detached garage/workshop. With easy access to open fields via a nearby footpath and the added convenience of a small village store located at the end of the road, ideal for day to day essentials, this location combines tranquillity with practicality.

Upon entering, a central entrance hall creates a warm and welcoming first impression, leading through to a bay fronted living room centred around a charming wood burning stove. There is also a versatile study or family room, ideal for working from home, which benefits from doors opening onto a front decked terrace, perfect for enjoying the evening sun.

At the heart of the home lies a stunning kitchen/dining room, beautifully appointed with quartz worktops, a central island, and generous space for dining and entertaining. There is a large utility room with integrated shower, W.C and washer/dryer, plus a spacious cupboard along one wall, all of which enhances the practicality and flexibility of the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, a large landing with a distinctive porthole window leads to a well-balanced arrangement of bedrooms, including a principal suite featuring a Juliette balcony, walk in dressing room, and a generous en suite shower room. A guest bedroom with vaulted ceiling enjoys attractive views towards Epsom College, complemented by two further well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern family bathroom.

The outdoor space is equally impressive, with a secluded rear garden featuring a patio area and charming koi pond, a useful side area with additional storage, and a spacious and private front garden with lawn, mature planting, and a sunken seating area that regularly accommodates a fire pit. Rarely does a home come to market that offers such a combination of privacy, seclusion, flexible accommodation, and a prime position within this sought-after location, and with the added benefit of no onward chain, this property represents a truly exceptional opportunity.

The property is situated within close proximity to the open spaces of Epsom Downs, home to the world-famous Derby. Epsom town centre and its mainline station are approximately a 25-minute walk away, offering regular services to London Waterloo, Victoria and London Bridge (approx. 35 minutes).

In addition, Tottenham Corner station provides an excellent alternative for commuters, with direct access to London Bridge, an affordable car park, and the added benefit of typically securing a seat on the train. This combination makes the location particularly attractive for those commuting into London.
