Nestled close to Epsom Common in the sought after area of Stamford Green this unique and unusual three bedroom detached bungalow offers a delightful blend of character and modern living.

Built around 1850, the property spans an impressive 1,035 square feet and boasts a large 23ft x 20ft open-plan living area, which creates a real sense of space and a light and airy feel. In addition there are two well-appointed bathrooms, one of which is an ensuite shower room.

Externally, the property includes a summer house, which offers further scope to improve or extend allowing you to personalise the space to your taste (subject to the usual permissions).

Situated directly opposite Epsom Common, residents can enjoy the beauty of nature right on their doorstep, while still being conveniently close to local shops and the train station. This prime location offers the best of both worlds, making it ideal for those who appreciate a peaceful environment without sacrificing accessibility.

In summary, this detached bungalow in Epsom is a rare find, combining historical charm with modern comforts in a sought-after location. Whether you are looking to downsize or find a blank canvas you can adapt, a tranquil retreat like this is very hard to find.

Convenience is never far away with Epsom town centre and its many leisure and retail facilities, being approximately 1.0 mile away. The property is also within the catchment of outstanding primary and secondary schools, close to Horton Country Park with the David Lloyd leisure centre and manages to balance a rural feel with easy accessibility to the amenities of the town.
