Downstairs the property includes a generous kitchen with access to the rear garden, an impressive 18ft lounge/dining room and a very useful utility room, whilst to the first floor there are three very nicely proportioned bedrooms and a modern refitted bathroom.

The 73ft rear garden is a huge selling point with the added benefit of a large patio terrace with glass balustrade which is a great entertaining space within its own right. The remainder of the garden is nicely secluded, low maintenance and enjoys access to the rear via a footpath that serves this terrace of homes.

Chapel Way is a very popular and rarely available residential road that is just a short walk from Tattenham Corner railway station which is just a short distance away. If you are travelling further afield the M25 is just a short drive away.

If you are looking to enjoy outside space then Epsom Downs itself is just around the corner as are the wide open spaces of Nork Park. The practicality of the location continues with a number of local convenience stores at Tattenham Corner or if you are wanting more variety the popular market town of Epsom, offering an array of retail units, leisure facilities and restaurants is just a couple of miles away, as is the pretty and vibrant Banstead Village.
