As soon as you step through the front door the amazing feel of the property is immediately evident, with a stylish and contemporary look throughout with the spacious kitchen/dining space with French doors out to a spectacular entertaining space being the real star of the show.

The ground floor continues to the front of the house with a formal lounge and a bedroom with ensuite which provides the ultimate flexibility for guests or a relative that cannot get up the stairs, alternatively it could be turned back into another reception room. The downstairs is completed by a larger than average utility which is perfect for leaving your shoes after a long walk on The Common and cloakroom/W.C.

On the first floor are four bedrooms, one has an ensuite shower room and there are a further two doubles and a single (which is currently being used as an office), all are serviced by a family bathroom. On the second floor is another double bedroom with luxurious bathroom.

Further noteworthy points to mention include underfloor heating downstairs, paved driveway with ample off street parking and a 60ft x 40ft Easterly facing rear garden with covered pergola and fireplace that makes the ultimate entertaining space for friends and family when they come over for a BBQ.

Nearby Epsom High Street has a variety of shops, the Ashley Centre - a covered shopping mall and Epsom Playhouse which offers a wide range of entertainment, including films and concerts. The Rainbow Leisure Centre & David Lloyd Centre feature pool, gym and other sports facilities. There is also a wide variety of cafés, restaurants and pubs available locally.

Epsom is a popular commuter town, located to the south west of London and offers a good mix of state and independent schools for all age groups. Also close by is Epsom Downs, the home of The Derby.
