Offered with no ongoing chain and set within a rarely available residential and quiet cul-de-sac, this deceptively spacious end of terrace house provides flexible and bright accommodation alongside huge scope to refurbish.

Whilst it is undeniable that the property requires some decorative updating, we believe that this home offers the perfect opportunity for the new owner to place their own stamp on the property, customise to individual tastes and essentially create their dream home. The property should be viewed for what it currently is and what it could potentially be.

The property is within the catchment of many fantastic local primary and secondary schools, and located within a short walk of Epsom town centre and the railway station with its regular services to London Victoria, Waterloo and London Bridge, as well as the local convenience stores and café which are just a few hundred metres around the corner.

As soon as you step through the front door into the entrance hall, the entertaining space that is the living room never fails to impress, both as a fantastic social space and the perfect room to relax in after a busy day.

The generous kitchen/dining room really is the heart of the home and provides direct access to the easy to maintain rear garden, whilst upstairs there are two large double bedrooms with vaulted ceilings and a family bathroom suite.

Epsom High Street has a variety of shops, the Ashley Centre - a covered shopping mall and Epsom Playhouse which offers a wide range of entertainment, including films and concerts. The Rainbow Leisure Centre & David Lloyd Centre feature pool, gym and other sports facilities. There is also a wide variety of cafés, restaurants and pubs available locally.

Epsom is a popular commuter town, located to the south west of London and offers a good mix of state and independent schools for all age groups. Also close by is Epsom Downs, the home of The Derby. The M25 (Junction 9) is a short drive away giving access to both Heathrow and Gatwick international airports.
