The first floor provides two well proportioned double bedrooms alongside a family bathroom, while the property has been extended into the loft to create an impressive principal bedroom suite, offering a private top floor retreat with adjoining shower room, excellent proportions and useful eaves storage. In total, the home offers three genuine double bedrooms, a rare feature for properties of this type.

Externally, the rear garden is a standout feature, combining patio and lawn areas with a high degree of privacy, making it ideal for both families and social occasions. The detached garden office further enhances the lifestyle offering, providing a quiet and adaptable space separate from the main house.

The overall accommodation extends to approximately 1331 sq ft including the garden office, offering generous and versatile living space throughout.

The location is a key strength, appealing to families and commuters alike. A number of well regarded local schools are within easy reach, while nearby transport links provide convenient access into London, making it ideal for those needing to balance work and home life.

The Wells is surrounded by hundreds of acres of woodland, with bridle paths and woodland walks providing easy access to the picturesque nature reserve of the Stamford Green conservation area and the popular green with duck pond and two public houses.

This property balances a semi-rural feel with the convenience of being walking distance of the town centre and mainline railway station via a footpath that links the common to the high street at a distance of 1.1 miles which is typically a 22 minute walk.

This is a well-presented and thoughtfully extended home that strikes an excellent balance between practicality and lifestyle, and early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything it has to offer.
