The Personal Agent are proud to present this attractive terraced home that is set within a quiet and popular cul de sac, just a short walk from Ewell Village.

As soon as you step through the front door of this superb Victorian house, you will be greeted by a genuine homely feel which is complemented by the bright and spacious rooms.

This charming home warrants a closer look to fully appreciate the stylish design touches that compliment its original character.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this wonderful character property.

The well planned accommodation comprises welcoming front reception room, with splendid rear reception room perfect for entertaining and dining at home, which links to a fitted kitchen, and modern downstairs bathroom. To the first floor there are two well proportioned bedrooms and a separate WC.

Further noteworthy points to mention include; a private rear garden, and a garage to the rear of the property.

The property also provides the perfect opportunity for the new owner to further extend their dream home, with neighbouring properties having extended into the loft.

The highly desirable Ewell Village has a rich background dating back to the Bronze age and at the end of the middle ages King Henry VIII established Nonsuch Palace (now Nonsuch Park) in 1538. The High Street offers a variety of shops, restaurants, cafés and pubs. Bourne Hall hosts a public library, subterranean theatre, gymnasium, café, and local museum. It regularly holds gatherings such as fayres and exhibitions.

In the heart of the village lies the picturesque Hogsmill river leading up to the nature reserve. There are a range of popular local schools and of course both Ewell East and West stations (zone 6) offer easy access to London with Waterloo and Victoria taking approximately 40 minutes.
