The Driftbridge main building was originally constructed in the 1930s, using timbers from H.M.S. Ganges. The property was converted into a selection of architecturally designed apartments in 2007 whilst retaining many of the character features of the original building. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate this stunning top floor apartment.

Set on the second floor, offering space and light that is not usually associated with apartments, the stunning property boasts many features, including a private roof terrace, large living/dining room and sleek and stylish kitchen.

This superb flat is sure to tick all your boxes with outside space that is big enough to entertain guests in the warmer months and internally an apartment that is ready to move into with immaculate décor throughout.

Further noteworthy points to mention include an allocated parking space.

The Driftbridge is an attractive development located between the popular towns of Epsom and Banstead. The original building dates back to the 1930s and was formally a hotel. Developed and extended back in 2007, the building retains much of its original charm and offers well finished, luxuriously appointed apartments.

Just around the corner, a parade of local shops provides all the basic day to day needs and a choice of restaurants.

Comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities are available in Epsom and Banstead. Epsom Downs Station is just a short walk away, and there are excellent road links to the M25, A217 and A3.

Early viewing is strongly advised to fully appreciate the position and space on offer.
