A generous two double bedroom first-floor maisonette boasting a private, south-facing garden, situated in this highly sought-after location. Offering an impressive 800 sq ft of overall space, along with ample storage and a long lease.

Bransby Road is a quiet residential street conveniently located close to Chessington South Station, which provides a direct line to Waterloo. Just a stone's throw from the property are the open spaces of Churchfields, ideal for dog walks; likewise, the expansive Horton Country Park is only a short walk away.

These impressive maisonettes are always popular, especially one with a lease in excess of 160 years and presented as beautifully as this. Located on the first floor, the property is likely to appeal to a variety of buyers. It is offered to the market in fantastic condition and provides attractive, well-balanced accommodation.

Ideally positioned and benefiting from a private south-facing garden is this sizeable two double bedroom maisonette. The property boasts a fitted kitchen with integrated dishwasher and fridge freezer, a family bathroom, a generous second double bedroom, and a large principal bedroom overlooking the garden. It also features an impressive front reception room, offering plenty of space for both living and dining. Additional benefits are a spacious loft storage and a separate brick-built storage unit to the rear.

North Parade shops are just over half a mile away and offer a local Sainsbury's, a pub, and various cafés and bakeries. There are a number of excellent schools nearby, including St Mary's C of E and Ellingham for primary education, and Chessington Community College for secondary. This location also provides swift access to Junction 9 of the M25, as well as the A3.
