This charming three bedroom mock Tudor style end of terrace house benefits from a private driveway and detached garage and is located in a popular residential area.

Homes in this popular area are favoured by young families and downsizers due its desirable location being only a few minutes walk of local shops, a good choice of schools and open parkland. The property offers the perfect blend of character and practicality and provides further scope to extend subject to planning permission making this a home you can enjoy for years to come.

The property has been well cared for and maintained over the years and the well stocked and secluded level rear garden will appeal to avid gardeners who enjoy spending time outdoors.

As soon as you step through the front door of this home you get a sense of the space and potential that is on offer.

There is an enclosed entrance porch that leads into a welcoming entrance hallway. The living room is the perfect space to cosy down and relax and there is a separate dining/family room which enjoys easy access to the garden, in addition there is a fully fitted kitchen which also has a door to the garden.

On the first floor are three well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom as well as a useful loft storage area.

Outside there is a secluded level rear garden that enjoys the afternoon sun and is well stocked with plants, trees and shrubs. To the rear is a detached garage with power and lighting and gate with rear access.

To the front of the property there is a block paved driveway providing off street parking and a small front garden stocked with plants and shrubs.

The property is situated on the edge of the popular Park Farm area just North of Cheam Village, within easy walking distance of a handy parade of shops and local bus routes to a variety of surrounding areas. There are a selection of Ofsted rated 'Outstanding' and 'Good' local schools nearby.
