The property offers a huge amount of scope for further potential for extension whether that be to the rear, side of loft, subject to planning permission.

Set within one of Stoneleigh's peaceful closes, this 1930s home offers the perfect blend of character, space and future potential. From the moment you step inside, the generous proportions, natural light create an immediate sense of comfort and possibility. With two elegant reception rooms opening onto a beautifully established 200ft garden, the house invites a lifestyle centred around family living, entertaining and enjoying the outdoors.

For those looking to shape a long term home, the layout lends itself effortlessly to modern reconfiguration, from open plan living to rear and loft extensions, subject to planning. All of this sits within easy reach of Auriol Park and School, Stoneleigh Broadway and Ewell Village, making it an ideal setting for families seeking convenience without compromising on tranquillity.

The property is built in the traditional 1930s style and features a welcoming entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. There are two well proportioned reception rooms: a bright and inviting living room with a large bay window that floods the space with natural light and tasteful décor, and a separate dining room with French doors that overlook and open onto the expansive rear garden.

Adjacent to the dining room is the kitchen, which offers excellent potential to be opened through to create a modern open plan layout. Alternatively, there is scope to add a rear kitchen extension and repurpose the existing kitchen into a utility room with a downstairs shower room/WC, subject to planning permission.

Upstairs, three bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, while the loft provides further potential for conversion to master bedroom with an en-suite, again subject to planning.

One of the standout features of this home is the larger than average rear garden, extending to approximately 200ft. Beautifully established, it offers an expansive lawn, mature planting and fruit trees, creating a wonderful sense of space and privacy.

The location is ideally suited for Auriol Park and Auriol School, with Stoneleigh Broadway and Ewell Village all within comfortable walking distance.

Stoneleigh is a highly sought after residential area with a bustling Broadway of shops and restaurants at its heart, as well as a mainline railway station with services to Waterloo every twenty minutes. There is a choice of infant and junior schools within the immediate vicinity and the Historic Nonsuch Park runs alongside the South East side.

Both the M25 and A3 are easily accessible giving a straight forward route to London and both Heathrow and Gatwick international airports.
