Davis Way Hurst

Nestled in the charming area of Hurst, Berkshire, this beautifully refurbished semi-detached cottage on Davis Way offers a delightful blend of modern comforts and traditional character. With three well-proportioned bedrooms, this property is perfect for families or those seeking a serene retreat.

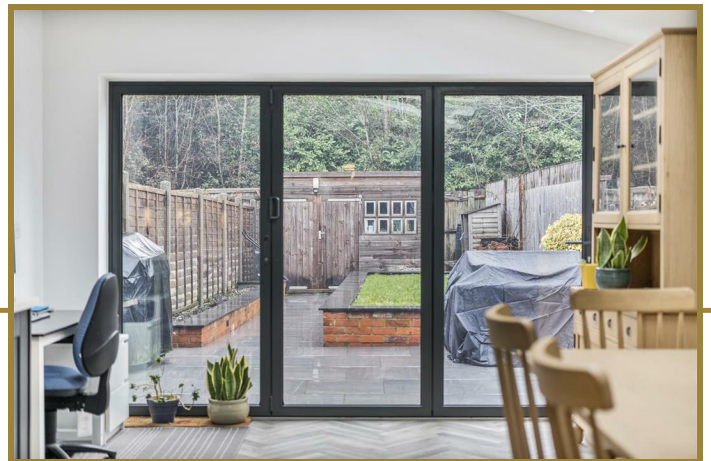

As you enter, you are welcomed into a spacious reception room that exudes warmth, enhanced by a cosy log burner, ideal for those chilly evenings. The feature brick wall on the staircase adds a touch of rustic charm, creating a unique focal point in the home.

The heart of the cottage is undoubtedly the large kitchen and dining room, which is bathed in natural light, making it a perfect space for entertaining or enjoying family meals. The underfloor heating on the ground floor ensures a warm and inviting atmosphere throughout the year.

For those with vehicles, the property offers parking for two, a valuable asset in this desirable location.

This semi-detached cottage is not just a house; it is a home that combines comfort, style, and practicality. With its prime location in Hurst, you will enjoy the tranquillity of village life while being conveniently close to local amenities, a lovely public house and transport links. Winnersh railway station is within walking distance, serving London Waterloo and Reading. Twyford mainline railway station is approximately 3 miles away, serving London Paddington and Reading, with the benefit of the Elizabeth Line. Dinton Pastures is a short walk away to enjoy walks and the cafe.

This property is a must-see for anyone looking to settle in a picturesque setting.
