ABOUT THE AREA

Brighouse occupies a prime position at the lower end of the Calder Valley, sitting alongside the Calder and Hebble Navigation waterway.

There is a weekly market in the heart of the town centre and a great choice of independent shops, restaurants and cafes to visit. These are supplemented by regular specialist markets, which take over the whole town centre, offering up to 100 food, drink and craft stalls.

Brighouse has gained a reputation for normally hosting and organising great festivals, such as the 1940's weekend in June, the Festival of Brass in July, the Canal and Music Festival in August and Art Festival in September. These run alongside the speciality markets, Christmas Fair and Charity Gala.

With fantastic commuter links to the Motorway and great schools in the immediate vicinity:

Conveniently located approximately 2.5 miles from the M62 , Brighouse centre is just a short walk away
