9 Lynndale Avenue
Birkby, Huddersfield, HD2 2XP

Offers Over £150,000

This delightful end terrace house is a true gem, brimming with character and charm. The property boasts a spacious layout spread over three floors, providing ample space comprising two inviting reception rooms, two well-proportioned bedrooms and a most useful attic space with fixed stairs and a skylight. The bathroom is a contemporary arrangement with a three piece white suite, and the separate kitchen although functional is a blank canvas for adding your own touch.

Outside you will find a lovely enclosed rear garden which due to its size and end of row nature allows for the opportunity of extension of the property subject to the necessary consents.

The stone exterior adds to the property's appeal, giving it a classic and timeless look that stands out in the neighbourhood, which is a popular location, ideally placed near local amenities and Huddersfield town center, making daily errands a breeze. Additionally, the proximity to the M62 motorway ensures excellent links for those commuting to the surrounding regional financial centres.

This property is well presented, and cared for but it is also a home full of potential, perfect for first-time buyers or small families. With its blend of character, space, and convenience, this end terrace house on Lynndale Avenue is a wonderful opportunity not to be missed.
