SALE BY INFORMAL TENDER

This impressive detached house offers a unique opportunity for potential buyers. Spanning an expansive circa 4900 square feet, this property has been thoughtfully designed to accommodate a care home, complete with established contracted tenants, ensuring a steady income stream for the discerning investor.

The property boasts extensive grounds, featuring beautifully maintained gardens that provide a serene outdoor space for residents and visitors alike. With the versatility of living space distributed across three main floors, as well as a cellar and a roof terrace, this home offers ample room for residents, staff, operational activities and functions.

The layout is both practical and inviting, making it suitable for its current use or for conversion into a stunning family residence, should one desire (subject to the current lease and planning).

Of particular note, the roof terrace offers a delightful vantage point to enjoy the surrounding views of the gardens..

This property is being offered by way of informal tender, with closing bids due by June 5th at 12.00 in writing.

This is a rare chance to acquire a substantial and versatile property in a desirable location. Whether you are looking to invest in a thriving care home or seeking a spacious family home, this property is sure to impress. Do not miss the opportunity to explore the possibilities that await at this remarkable Fareham residence.
