Situated in Totterdown, one of Bristol's most vibrant and connected neighbourhoods - known for its colourful hillside terraces, independent cafés, and strong community spirit. Local parks, shops, pubs, and cultural venues are all within a 10-minute walk, with Temple Meads station just 15 minutes away on foot. Well served by bus routes, cycle paths, and road links, this is a fantastic location for city living with a neighbourhood feel.

Abundant green spaces grace the vicinity, ranging from the serene Victorian allure of Arnos Vale, complete with a charming café at its heart, to the breathtaking views of balloons that can be spotted from Perrett Park. Additionally, the sprawling 51 acres of the picturesque Victoria Park provides a verdant sanctuary just 5 minutes walk away.

A first floor two-bedroom flat with its own private entrance and allocated parking, set in the heart of Totterdown on the popular Three Lamps development between Wells Road & Bath Road offering excellent transport links, this home is ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors looking for a well-connected base in one of Bristol's most characterful neighbourhoods.

Externally, the property boasts a highly coveted allocated parking space and the property is offered with no onward chain!
