Offered to market with NO ONWARD CHAIN, is this three bed family home offering plenty of social space inside and out.

You are welcomed into this property via the expansive entrance hall spanning over 13ft and providing access into the living sections of the home. To your left is the living/dining area. This large space flows nicely from dining space into living area and can be utilised as one big room large enough for all your friends and family. Completing the ground floor is the kitchen with ample storage and workspace for meal prep.

Upstairs are three bedrooms, two of which are excellent sized double rooms, the third bedroom would be a generous single room or could be used as a home office, nursery or gaming room. The three piece bathroom suite finishes the first floor.

Externally there is an extensive garden with a large patio section before the rest of the outdoor space is laid to lawn. The garden backs onto and overlooks adjoining school fields.
