

Park Lane, Reigate

Guide Price £1,650,000

“

With a prestigious address located in the very heart of Reigate, this beautiful and truly unique property is full of character, charm and sophistication throughout.

This striking detached period property is located just off Reigate High Street close to Priory park. The current owners have worked tirelessly, paying fantastic attention to detail, to restore it to its original glory.

Stepping through the restored front door into the large hallway you immediately appreciate the fabulous presentation of this elegant home with plenty of space for the whole family to enjoy. There is an impressive sitting room with an ethanol burner imported from France along with all the gorgeous wooden flooring from a French Chateaux. The stunning handmade kitchen has solid marble worktops, a Lacanche oven and plenty of dining and living space. Crittal doors and windows open onto the landscaped rear garden with a lawn and a herringbone deck - perfect for dining al fresco or soaking up the sun. Just off the kitchen is the cosy snug and there is also a separate home office with built in storage complete with attached ladder.

Upstairs, the sumptuous master bedroom suite has a decadent ensuite shower with marble surrounds and slate floor aswell as a raised dressing area. There are three further double bedrooms and two bathrooms.
