

The Street, Capel
£650,000

A beautifully updated character home in the sought-after village of Capel, offering spacious, flexible living, modern features, and excellent access to local amenities, countryside walks, and commuter links

Set in the popular village of Capel, The Old Bakery is a charming semi-detached home that beautifully balances period character with modern comforts. The ground floor benefits from underfloor heating throughout, complementing its inviting and well-planned layout.

A pretty enclosed front courtyard leads to a useful porch and entrance hall. The spacious open-plan kitchen/dining/family room is perfect for contemporary living, featuring a vaulted ceiling and folding doors that open onto the garden and covered patio. A separate utility room, additional reception room, and a large wet room-style shower complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, the main bedroom has built-in wardrobes and a feature fireplace. Bedroom two enjoys a vaulted ceiling and mezzanine storage with loft access, while bedroom three and the family bathroom complete the layout.

Outside, the garden is mainly lawned with a patio area ideal for outdoor dining. A side gate leads to private off-street parking via a driveway beside the neighbouring property.
