Set in a sought-after location and brimming with period charm, this beautifully renovated 1930s three-bedroom detached home offers the perfect blend of character, style, and convenience.

From the moment you step inside, the welcoming front reception room sets the tone, with its elegant bay window drawing in natural light and creating a warm, inviting space to relax or entertain. The kitchen and dining areas have been thoughtfully designed, providing a stylish hub for everyday living while still complementing the home's original character. Every room is presented in pleasant decorative order, making it ready to move into and enjoy from day one.

Upstairs, the main bedroom mirrors the reception room's charm with its own bay window, creating a bright and tranquil retreat. Two further bedrooms offer versatility, whether for family, guests, or a dedicated home office. Outside, the private rear garden feels like a peaceful escape from the bustle of daily life, while the driveway to the front ensures the practicalities are covered.

The location is hard to beat—just a short stroll to both Redhill mainline station and Earlswood station, offering fast and direct links into London, ideal for commuters. Earlswood itself is home to a selection of well-regarded nurseries and schools, adding to the area's family appeal. For those with an eye to the future, the property also offers the exciting potential to extend (STPP), allowing you to create substantially more living space and tailor the home to your needs for years to come.
