

Victoria Road, Horley

A modern top-floor flat with a bright semi-open plan living space, two generous bedrooms one with an en-suite and handy external storage, all just moments from Horley station and the town centre. A smart, well-connected home that suits first-time buyers, investors and frequent travellers alike.

Set on the top floor of a well-kept development in the heart of Horley, this modern two-bedroom flat offers a bright, comfortable living space with excellent convenience. The semi-open plan kitchen and lounge create an easy, sociable flow, complemented by fully integrated Bosch appliances that add a premium touch.

Both bedrooms are generously sized, with the main bedroom enjoying its own en-suite, while the second bedroom sits alongside a spacious main bathroom — ideal for guests, sharers or anyone wanting a bit more flexibility. The building benefits from lift access, making day-to-day living and moving belongings in and out far easier, and the flat also comes with handy external storage.

Despite being moments from the town centre and a short walk from Horley station, the flat remains remarkably peaceful, offering a quiet retreat without sacrificing location. Gatwick Airport and local schools are close by, making this an appealing choice for first-time buyers, investors and frequent travellers.
