

Lodge Lane, Redhill
£725,000

This extended four-bedroom detached home on Lodge Lane offers generous living space and outstanding potential, set against a stunning backdrop of rolling fields. With a double-fronted layout and flexible accommodation throughout, it's perfectly suited for families looking to create their dream home. Peacefully positioned within walking distance of the train station, it blends convenience with countryside charm.

Set on the sought-after Lodge Lane, just a short walk from the train station, this substantial four-bedroom detached home offers exceptional space and exciting potential, made even more desirable by its peaceful backdrop of rolling fields.

The property has been significantly extended with a double-storey side extension, creating a striking double-fronted appearance and dramatically increasing the internal footprint. Inside, the accommodation flows with versatility, ideal for growing families or those looking to tailor a home to their own needs.

Generous reception areas provide plenty of room for both entertaining and everyday living, while the kitchen and dining zones offer scope to redesign into a stunning open-plan space.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are complemented by an expansive layout, lending themselves to further enhancement or reconfiguration if desired. Outside, the rear garden offers a wonderful sense of privacy and open space, thanks to uninterrupted views across the surrounding countryside—perfect for relaxing or watching the seasons change. With its prime location, impressive size and enormous potential, this is a home that invites imagination and rewards vision.
