

Commonfield Road, Banstead

£800,000

A wonderful family home located in one of Banstead's most desirable roads, just a short walk from Banstead Village, train station and local schools

Located in a highly desirable road just a short distance to Banstead Village and train station is this beautifully presented family home, boasting three double bedrooms, whilst also having the added benefit of backing onto open woodland.

The home has spacious and well proportioned rooms throughout, making it an ideal proposition for a growing family, with local schools also just a short walk away. This wonderful home also has further potential for extension STPP.

Outside there is a stunning westerly facing rear garden which contains a large cabin / gym.
