HURRY TO VIEW this attractive home, boasting in excess of 1100 SQFT of beautifully appointed accommodation, with the added benefit of ENERGY EFFICIENT air source heating! The property occupies an attractive garden plot at the heart of Kilnwick - a wonderfully tranquil village standing conveniently between the popular market towns of Beverley and Driffield. Having been improved by the present owners in recent years, the spacious layout briefly comprises Entrance Hall, Living Room, Dining Kitchen, Three Bedrooms, En-Suite Bathroom and house Shower Room, with driveway parking, integral Garage and established gardens to both the front and rear.

Location

The pretty village of Kilnwick lies in an idyllic location, surrounded by Yorkshire Wolds countryside, off the A164 link road between the highly regarded market towns of Beverley, approximately 8 miles to the south, and Driffild, approximately 7 miles to the north. There is a wonderful village community, with regular social events hosted at the village hall and the All Saints Church. Primary schooling is provided at the Beswick & Watton school situated just a mile to the east of the village. In 2017, local beneficiaries gifted some 6.5 acres of land at the west end of the village to create a charity owned and operated Eco Park to serve the communities of local villages. There are open grass recreation spaces for ball games, wooden play area equipment, various seating and picnic areas, nature habitat area and a woodland plantation which saw 1,000 trees planted by local volunteers. The village lies along the 'Minster Way Walk' - a popular walking route between the fabulous Minsters of York and Beverley - as well as enjoying convenient access to a network of country lane cycling routes.
