

14 Salisbury Road, Maesteg, CF34 9EG

£340,000

A rare opportunity to acquire this substantial and characterful four bedroom semi-detached home, occupying a generous plot and retaining an abundance of original period features throughout. Believed to date from the early Edwardian era, the property boasts impressive high ceilings, decorative coving and original parquet flooring, creating a wonderful sense of space and character throughout.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch leading into a welcoming hallway featuring beautiful original parquet flooring and decorative coving, setting the tone for the character found throughout the home. There are two generously proportioned reception rooms, both benefiting from original parquet flooring and ornate coving, while the attractive bay windows flood the accommodation with natural light. The ground floor is further complemented by an L-shaped kitchen, utility room/cloakroom and access to the rear garden.

To the first floor are four well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, with the attractive period features continuing throughout much of the home.

Externally, the property enjoys a forecourt to the front and an enclosed rear garden, providing a private outdoor space for families to enjoy. A particular highlight is the substantial double garage to the rear, offering parking for up to four vehicles, excellent storage or workshop potential. Beyond the garage lies an additional parcel of land, providing further versatility and potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary planning permissions.

Combining generous living accommodation, timeless period charm and exceptional outdoor space, this is a wonderful opportunity to purchase a distinctive family home with immense potential.
