

23 Martins Road
Shortlands, Bromley, BR2 0EE
£625,000 Freehold EPC: D

 Maguire Baylis

GUIDE PRICE £625,000 - £650,000

A simply stunning extended two double bedroom Victorian terraced house forming part of a favoured residential road providing much convenience being just a few minutes walk from Shortlands local shops and main-line station (trains to both London Victoria and Blackfriars), Bromley town centre is also close by - a pleasant 10 minute walk through the park. The popular, and highly regarded, Valley Primary School is also close by.

The property, which is beautifully presented having been completely refurbished over recent years to a very high standard throughout, provides spacious accommodation with a stand-out feature being the superb, beautifully appointed kitchen/diner with patio doors to the garden and large central island unit. Further features comprise: hallway with useful storage cupboard; downstairs WC and cosy living room with fireplace.

Upstairs, there are the two double bedrooms plus a spacious and luxuriously appointed bathroom providing a modern suite in a period style featuring a free-standing roll top bath and separate walk-in shower.

Outside, the landscaped rear garden extends to around 60' and provides an attractive main area of lawn, raised beds, and two good size patio areas front and rear. A further bonus is the self-contained home office to the rear which features a cloakroom, plus blinds to the door, window and sky light and could therefore be used as an occasional bedroom. To the front, there is off street parking on the driveway.
