Located in the heart of Rowlands Castle village, this attractive three-bedroom semi-detached period home, constructed in 1895 from distinctive Bath stone, offers a rare opportunity to purchase a character property with no forward chain and plenty of scope to extend and personalise (subject to planning permission).

Set back from the road behind a spacious bay and forecourt, the property is approached via a pathway leading to the front entrance. Once inside, the welcoming hallway gives access to the main reception rooms. The sitting room is a bright and comfortable space featuring an attractive bay window and a traditional fireplace, while the separate dining room also benefits from its own feature fireplace and an opening through to the kitchen, creating a sociable and flexible layout. From the dining room, a door leads into the conservatory, which overlooks the impressive rear garden. A ground floor bathroom is accessed via a small lobby to the rear.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing provides access to three well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which include feature fireplaces, adding to the home's period charm. The master bedroom further benefits from a dressing room, offering ideal potential for conversion into an en-suite shower room if desired.

Externally, the property truly excels with a substantial rear garden extending to approximately 100 metres, mostly laid to lawn with mature shrubs, trees, and well-stocked flowerbeds. The space offers significant potential for extension or landscaping to create a stunning outdoor retreat.

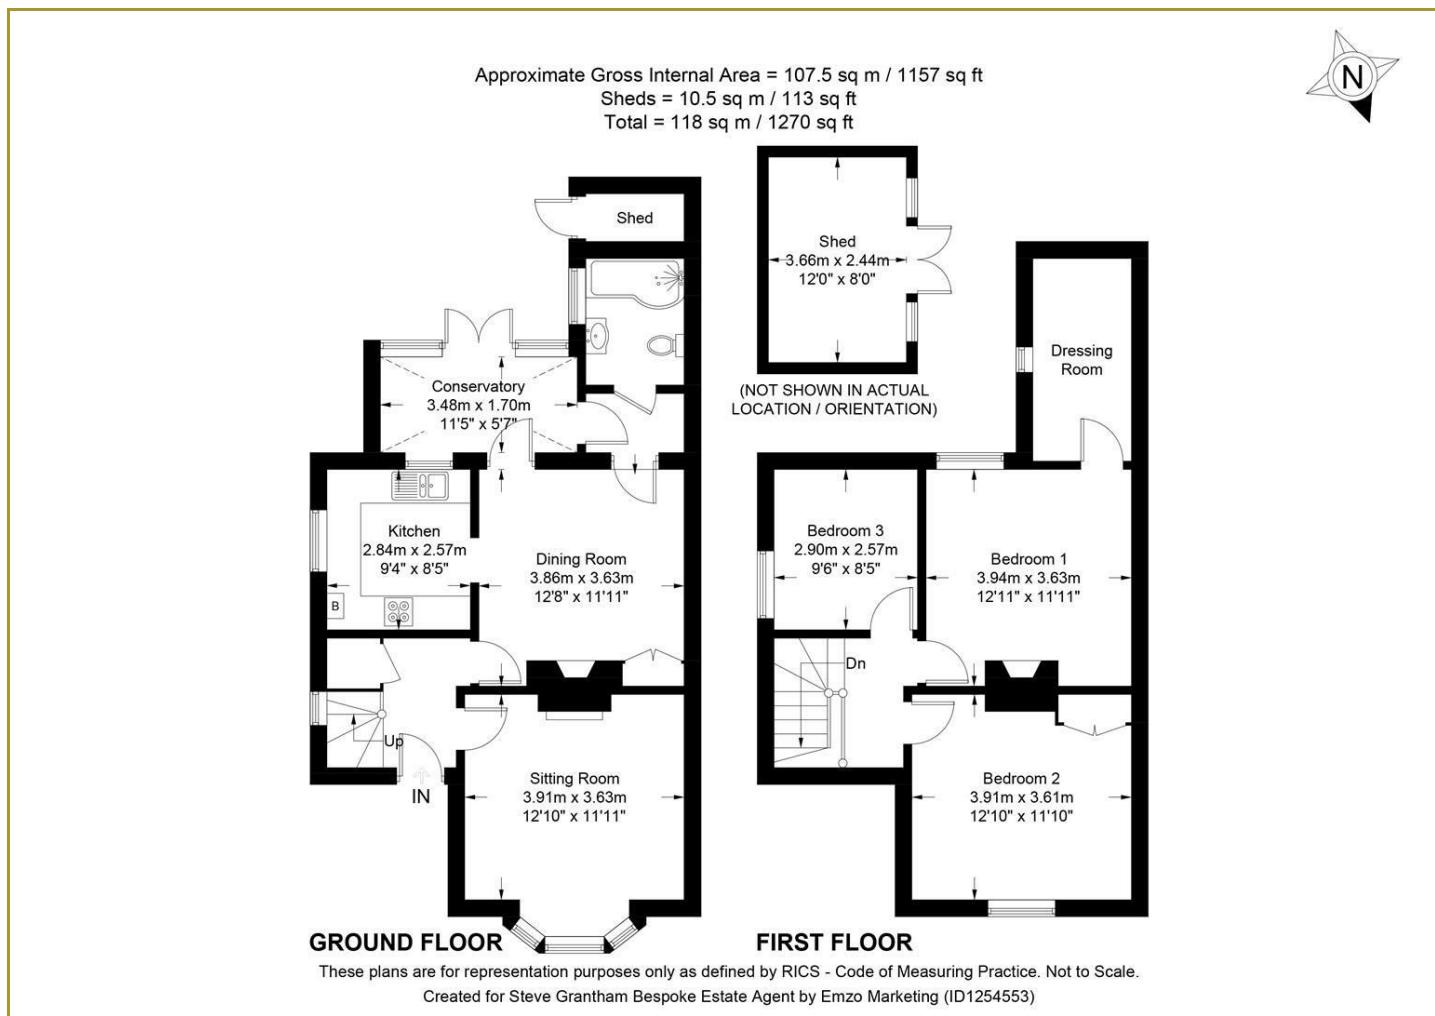

This beautiful Bath stone home retains much of its original character while providing an excellent opportunity for new owners to put their own stamp on the property and modernise to taste. Perfectly positioned within the centre of Rowlands Castle, close to local amenities, transport links, and village green, this is a rare find in such a sought-after location.

An internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm, potential, and generous accommodation on offer.
