Beautifully presented throughout, the property offers a wonderful blend of period charm and modern convenience. Character features include a Victorian-style fireplace, picture rails, panelled doors and traditional cottage-style doors, creating a warm and inviting feel throughout. These are complemented by modern comforts such as electric heating, part replacement uPVC leaded-light style windows, a well-equipped kitchen, contemporary bathroom and en-suite shower room, and practical low-maintenance flooring.

The accommodation is both well proportioned and thoughtfully arranged. The ground floor comprises a welcoming canopy porch and entrance hall, a generous through living room, a separate dining room with an archway leading through to the kitchen, and useful under-stairs storage. Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to the principal bedroom, which benefits from built-in wardrobes and a modern en-suite shower room, together with a second bedroom, also with built-in wardrobes, and a family bathroom.

To the rear, the cottage enjoys attractive country views and a charming fully enclosed courtyard garden, predominantly paved for ease of maintenance and ideal for outdoor seating, pots and al fresco dining. A useful attached brick utility provides excellent additional storage and practical space. On-street parking is available within the village, subject to availability.

Uploders is a picturesque and peaceful Dorset village, made up predominantly of attractive stone houses and cottages, with a welcoming public house and a strong sense of village charm. Set within a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the surrounding countryside offers an abundance of scenic walks and rural enjoyment. The neighbouring village of Loders lies approximately one mile away and offers a further public house and a popular primary school.
