Corner Cottage is a well-presented detached home in the thriving village community of Milborne St Andrew, combining period charm with modern comfort. Ideally positioned for convenient access to Blandford, Dorchester, Bournemouth and Poole, it offers an excellent balance of village living and connectivity to the surrounding towns and wider Dorset area.

At the heart of the home is a generously sized and welcoming kitchen / dining area. Fitted with an extensive range of units, ample work surfaces and underfloor heating, it offers both practicality and warmth, enhancing the cottage's appeal

The spacious yet intimate lounge features a charming period fireplace, adding to the home's cosy cottage-style character and creating a comfortable space for everyday living.

The downstairs is completed by a study, shower room and guest bedroom/second living room with a wonderfully high ceiling, exposed beams and useful loft storage area.

Upstairs, in the two bedrooms, bathroom and on the landing, characterful rooflines and extensive built-in storage add further appeal. The expansive principal bedroom with its thick stone walls and modern glazing make the interior remarkably peaceful, whilst the exposed beams give a delightfully homely feeling.

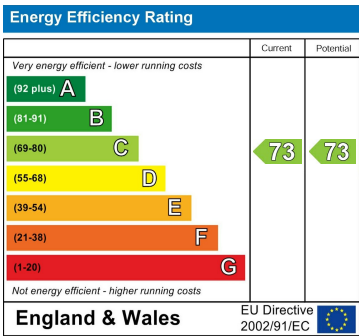

Outside, the garden wraps around the cottage, offering a private, enclosed space with mature planting and seasonal interest. The substantial garage, workshop and parking area provide practicality rarely found in village cottages.

Corner Cottage is an enchanting home filled with warmth, personality and tradition. Its excellent road access, unusually spacious and peaceful interior, and secluded garden make it a superb choice for buyers who value both character and convenience in a well connected Dorset location.
