Forming part of the prestigious Walpole Court development—a characterful stable conversion in historic Puddletown—this spacious two-bedroom ground-floor apartment offers low-maintenance luxury and a vibrant community feel. Key highlights include a double-aspect living/dining room, a private front patio, a private garage with parking directly outside the apartment, and exclusive development amenities including an on-site manager, guest suite, communal gardens with a summer house, and laundry facilities included in the management fees

Stepping inside, the generous proportions immediately create an inviting sense of air and light. The double-aspect lounge and dining room provides a wonderful setting for both everyday living and formal entertaining, flowing seamlessly through to the kitchen. Both double bedrooms are well-sized, served by the rare convenience of having both a dedicated shower room and a separate main bathroom.

Extending the living space outdoors, the property enjoys its own private patio area to the front, along with access to a shared patio to the rear, perfect for enjoying quiet mornings or evening relaxation. Externally, the apartment benefits from its own private garage alongside convenient parking positioned directly outside the apartment.

Residents at Walpole Court enjoy an exceptional range of exclusive, lifestyle-enhancing amenities included within the management fees including the full cost of water/sewage services are also included in the management/service charge fees. Peace of mind is provided by an on-site courtyard manager and a personal alarm system, while guests can be accommodated in style via a dedicated resident guest suite available for a modest additional charge. Community life thrives around the beautifully maintained communal gardens and summer house, which regularly hosts friendly social gatherings, and residents also benefit from full access to an on-site laundry facility.

Situated in the sought-after Dorset village of Puddle Town that is famous for its literary connections and vibrant village feel, local amenities are right on the doorstep, including traditional shops and the renowned Blue Vinny pub. Transport links are excellent, with reliable bus connections to Dorchester, Weymouth, Poole, and Bournemouth, while nearby Dorchester offers hourly main-line train services directly into London Waterloo.
