The first floor continues the home's blend of character and style, comprising two well-proportioned bedrooms and a beautifully appointed family bathroom. The principal bedroom is an elegant and generously sized retreat, featuring a bay window with shutters that floods the room with natural light, complemented by decorative ceiling detailing and a striking period fireplace that reinforces the property's heritage appeal. A second double bedroom offers flexible accommodation and is ideally suited as a guest room, children's bedroom or home office. Completing the floor is a stunning family bathroom, thoughtfully designed with a freestanding bath, twin vanity unit, patterned tiled flooring and calming coastal-inspired tones, creating a luxurious space in which to relax and unwind.

The second floor provides two further versatile bedrooms, both enjoying plenty of natural light and characteristic sloping ceiling lines that add to the charm of this upper level. The larger of the two rooms is a bright and generously proportioned double bedroom, currently arranged as a creative workspace and bedroom, while the fourth bedroom offers an ideal guest room, child's bedroom or dedicated home office. Together, these rooms provide flexible accommodation perfectly suited to modern family living.

To the rear, a beautifully enclosed courtyard garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create a private and low-maintenance outdoor retreat. Finished with attractive stone paving and enclosed by traditional stone walls, the space offers ample room for al fresco dining, entertaining and relaxation. Well-stocked planters, a useful storage shed and established greenery soften the space, while the sheltered setting creates an inviting extension of the home throughout the warmer months.
