THE COASTAL SETTING

The Sea Gazer occupies an attractive position between Weymouth and Portland Harbour, placing the coast and its activities immediately on the doorstep.

The location is particularly well suited to sailing, boating and watersports, while coastal walks, The Rodwell Trail and local beaches are within a short stroll.

Weymouth's waterfront, harbour and waterside dining are just over a mile away, giving the house a peaceful residential setting while remaining close to the town.

A rare combination of architectural character, exceptional scale, privacy and an outstanding coastal setting.

The town's elegant Georgian Esplanade frames Weymouth's sweeping sandy bay, which has consistently received national recognition and was recently honoured with a prestigious seaside award for summer 2025. The house is approximately 400 metres from the seafront and the popular Rodwell Trail, a scenic coastal route linking Weymouth to Wyke Regis and Chesil Beach, and favoured by walkers and cyclists alike.

Several local sandy beaches are within easy walking distance, along with Sandsfoot Gardens and Café, while the dramatic shingle shoreline of Chesil Beach lies close by. The South West Coast Path is also moments away, offering immediate access to some of the region's most striking coastal and countryside walks.

Weymouth and Portland Harbour provide a wealth of recreational opportunities, including sailing, fishing excursions, jet skiing and regular boat trips along the Jurassic Coast, with routes to iconic landmarks such as Durdle Door. Sunset catamaran cruises departing from Portland Harbour further enhance the area's appeal.

The wider locality is rich in natural beauty and heritage, forming part of the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. Dorchester, the county town, offers a broader range of shopping, amenities and cultural attractions, while well-known destinations including Lulworth Cove, Durdle Door and West Bay are all within comfortable reach. The area is well served by a selection of respected schools, including independent options in Dorchester, Sherborne and Blandford Forum, together with good transport links connecting the coast to the wider region.
