BEACH HUT 12, occupying an enviable position at the ever-popular Portland Bill, just a short stroll from the sea and enjoying STUNNING COASTAL VIEWS. Offering the perfect seaside escape, this charming hut combines a fantastic location with practical, well-presented accommodation.

Portland Bill is one of Dorset's most spectacular coastal settings, renowned for its dramatic scenery, rugged coastline and breathtaking sea views. With the South West Coast Path right on the doorstep, there are wonderful walks in both directions, making it the perfect spot for exploring the stunning Jurassic Coast.

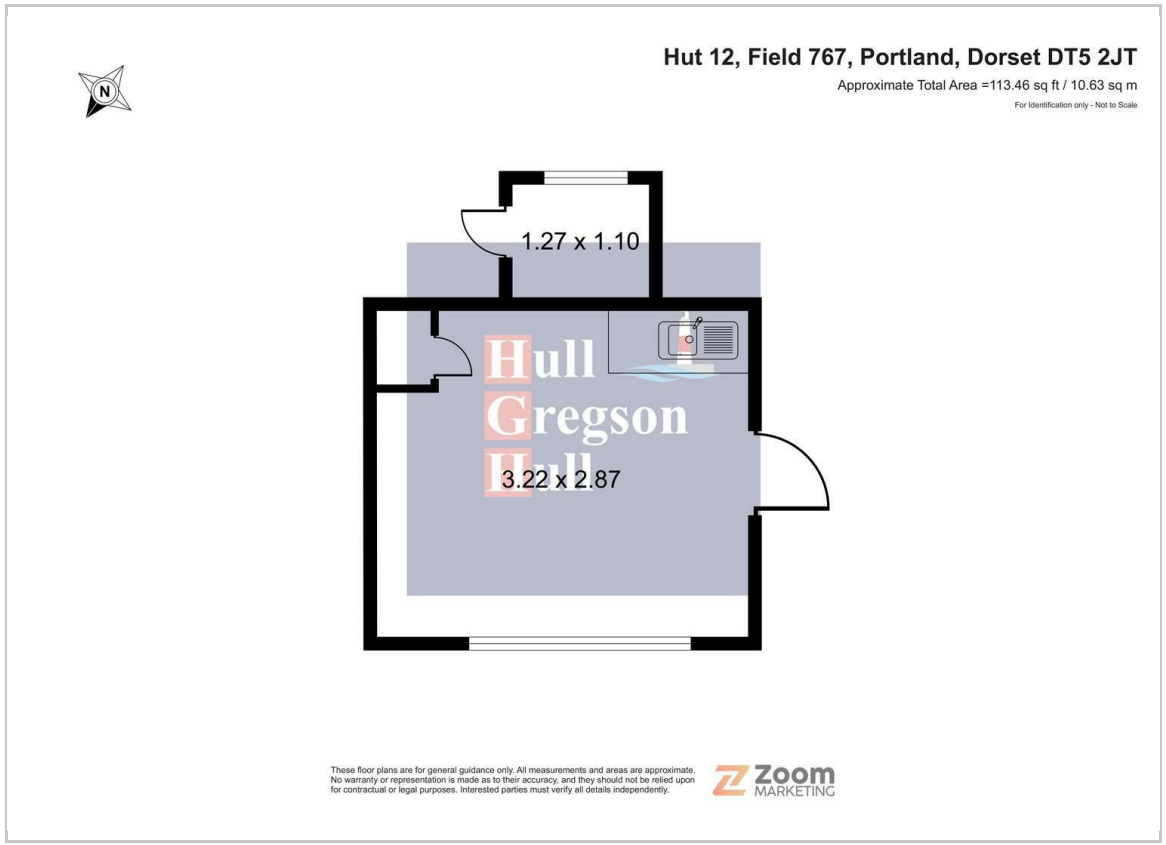

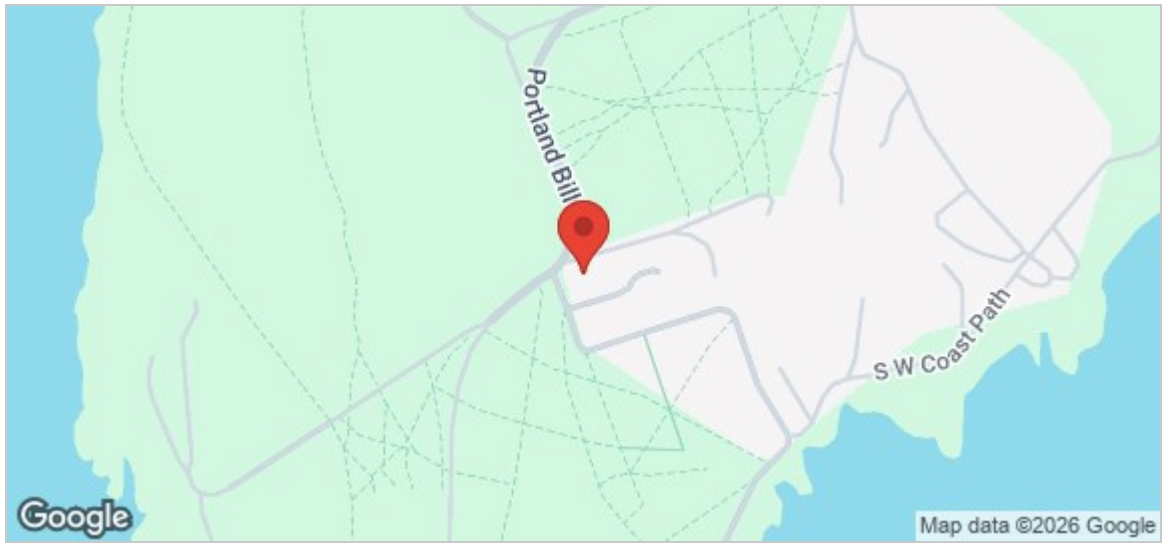

The iconic red and white Portland Lighthouse is just moments away, alongside the famous Pulpit Rock, fascinating coastal wildlife and a selection of popular cafés and eateries. Whether enjoying a coastal walk, watching the waves or simply relaxing with a cup of tea and a view, this location really does have it all.

Internally, the hut has been thoughtfully arranged to maximise the available space, featuring a well-equipped kitchenette with cupboards, together with a comfortable living area and space for a dining table. Externally, there is the added benefit of a separate area housing a chemical WC. Completing the hut is a fibreglass roof, installed approximately 6 years ago.

A fantastic opportunity to own your very own seaside retreat in an outstanding coastal location – perfect for escaping the everyday and making the most of everything this beautiful stretch of Dorset coastline has to offer.
