Occupying a peaceful and highly sought-after position on the edge of the picturesque village of Worth Matravers, this exceptional detached Purbeck stone bungalow enjoys an enviable setting surrounded by some of Dorset's most spectacular coastal countryside. With views across National Trust land to the front and glimpses towards the sea through Winspit Valley from the garden, the property is perfectly placed to enjoy the renowned Jurassic Coast and nearby beauty spots including Winspit and Chapman's Pool.

Constructed in 1996 and cherished by the same family since new, the bungalow has been meticulously maintained and thoughtfully updated to offer beautifully presented, light-filled accommodation throughout. Designed with both comfort and practicality in mind, the spacious layout is complemented by modern shower room suites and an attractive balance of traditional character and contemporary convenience. Built from natural Purbeck stone beneath a Spanish slate roof, the property blends seamlessly with its stunning surroundings.

The welcoming entrance hall provides access to well-proportioned accommodation, including an impressive triple-aspect sitting room where natural light floods the space. A feature Purbeck stone fireplace creates an attractive focal point, while double doors open directly onto the south-facing walled garden, providing an effortless connection between indoor and outdoor living. The kitchen is fitted with a range of classic cottage-style units and integrated appliances, offering a practical and attractive workspace.

The principal bedroom is generously proportioned and benefits from a stylish en-suite shower room. Two further double bedrooms are served by a contemporary family shower room, making the property equally well suited as a permanent residence, coastal retreat or retirement home.

Externally, the property enjoys beautifully maintained, low-maintenance walled gardens with a sheltered south-facing terrace, ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation. A private driveway provides ample off-road parking and leads to the attached garage. An additional feature is the adjoining paddock, offering further outdoor space and enhancing the property's appeal in this exceptional rural setting.

Worth Matravers is one of the Isle of Purbeck's most desirable villages, celebrated for its unspoilt charm, dramatic coastal scenery and excellent walking opportunities. Situated within the Dorset National Landscape and close to the UNESCO World Heritage Jurassic Coast, the village offers a rare combination of tranquillity and accessibility, with the coastal town of Swanage and the market town of Wareham both within easy reach.
