TOP HOUSE

Top House is an impressive five-bedroom semi-detached residence that combines period character, timeless charm and the opportunity to generate an excellent income by letting the two attached self-contained annexes, if desired. Constructed of traditional Purbeck stone, and surrounded by National Trust Land in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, this exceptional home is rich in original features, including attractive stone-flagged floors, exposed beams and a wealth of architectural character.

Situated in the sought-after village of Langton Matravers, the property enjoys an enviable location from which to explore Dorset's spectacular coastline. The historic village is renowned for its centuries-old Purbeck stone quarrying heritage and lies within the Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The iconic ruins of Corfe Castle, the golden beaches of Studland and the traditional seaside town of Swanage are all just a short drive away.

A welcoming entrance hall leads into the spacious sitting room, where an exposed Purbeck stone feature wall and an impressive inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove create a wonderfully warm and inviting atmosphere—perfect for relaxing after a walk to Chapman's Pool or St Aldhelm's Head.

Beyond the sitting room, the central hallway features elegant stone-flagged flooring and a striking turning staircase rising to the first-floor landing. A conveniently positioned cloakroom is located just off the hall.

The dining room adjoins the hallway, providing a delightful space for family gatherings and entertaining. Beyond lies a beautifully appointed farmhouse-style kitchen, fitted with an excellent range of contemporary worktops, cupboards and drawers, complemented by attractive stone-tiled flooring. A delightful westerly outlook across the garden provides the perfect backdrop for breakfast or morning coffee.

Also accessed from the hallway is a generously proportioned utility room, offering ample storage, a sink and space for laundry appliances. Beyond this is a practical sun room, ideal for muddy boots, coats and paws before entering the main house.

Also on the ground floor is a comfortable family room, equally suited as a study, snug or additional reception room. The accommodation flows into a delightful conservatory with a vaulted ceiling, creating a wonderfully light-filled space from which to enjoy the surrounding gardens and far-reaching countryside views.

The first floor offers well-proportioned accommodation, centred around an impressive principal suite enjoying beautiful views across the surrounding hills and countryside. The suite includes a generous dressing room with an excellent range of fitted wardrobes, a contemporary shower room and a separate WC with bidet and wash basin.

Bedroom Two benefits from its own en-suite shower room, providing excellent comfort and privacy for visiting guests, while a third bedroom and two further bath/shower rooms complete the first-floor accommodation.

Stairs continue to the second floor, where two additional bedrooms provide ideal accommodation for children, guests or hobbies. At the top of the house is a further attic room together with a large boarded attic space with a window, offering excellent storage and potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

Connected to the main house, yet each enjoying its own private external entrance, are two self-contained annexes. Old Haberdashery offers beautifully presented open-plan living accommodation with two first-floor bedrooms, while Bobbin Cottage comprises an open-plan kitchen, living and dining area, together with a ground-floor bedroom and bathroom. Both annexes present an excellent opportunity to generate holiday letting income in this highly sought-after area, which is particularly popular with walkers, cyclists and visitors exploring the Purbeck countryside and Jurassic Coast.

Outside, a gravelled driveway provides parking for up to six vehicles and leads to a detached Purbeck stone garage with power and lighting. The beautifully landscaped gardens are a particular feature of the property, comprising expansive lawns interspersed with mature shrubs and trees, all enjoying magnificent open views towards the Purbeck Hills, Corfe Castle and Ballard Down. In addition, a charming walled garden adjoins the main house, providing a wonderfully private and secluded outdoor space.

Top House is a home of exceptional character and tranquillity, offering an increasingly rare opportunity to acquire a substantial period residence with remarkable versatility and considerable income potential. The property has previously hosted a family wedding, a testament to its
