Located just a short stroll from local Swanage amenities, the property offers a truly charming yet comfortable place to live.

Steps lead to the front door, which welcomes us initially into the living room. The space is rich in character with a feature Purbeck stone fire place and dark wood flooring, offering a cosy place to relax and shut the world away. The living room boasts plenty of space for a sofa suite, display cabinets and a breakfast table, whilst sash windows beckon in the sunshine.

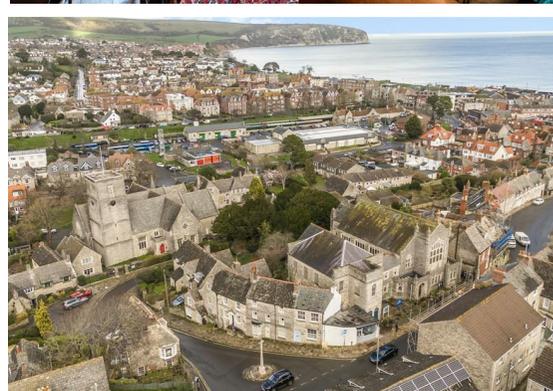

A doorway leads directly to the kitchen, a practical and space-saving room comprising essentials such as base and eye-level storage cupboards, inset sink and dishwasher, integrated oven, grill and four-ring electric hob. From the kitchen, there is access to a separate W.C.

Following back through to the living room, stairs lead down to the second of the two bedrooms. This unique space allows plenty of room for twin beds or a generous double, with further room for free-standing storage. Feature ceiling beams continue the sense of charm throughout the property. From here, there is separate access into the property, whereby you can easily access the communal gardens.

From the living room stairs also rise to the principal bedroom, a substantial double bedroom with original Purbeck stone fireplace. There is plenty of room for further storage and inset shelving provides ideal space to store books.

Stairs then lead to the bathroom, a modernised space comprising P-shaped bath and shower over, W.C., and wash basin. The property has been gently modernised to incorporate contemporary comforts with the original long-standing character and charm of the home and land on which it stands.

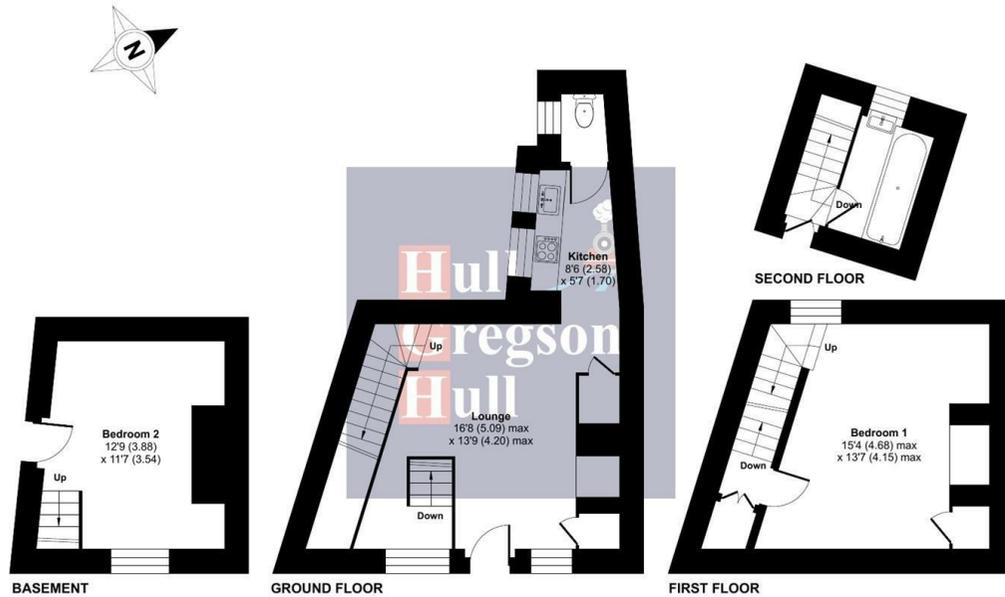

Outside, the communal gardens area accessed through a shared archway. The gardens are mostly laid to lawn and are tiered to create ideal space for a bistro four-seater table to enjoy drinks outside in the summer months or a coffee in the mornings. From here there are pleasant glimpses over the Purbeck Hills towards the sea. The property is situated just a stone's throw from the local corner shop for convenience, and is of walkable distance to the Black Swan Pub.
