The Accommodation

The hallway then flows into the kitchen/dining room. This is another bright and welcoming space which offers practicality and space. It is the true heart of the home, with plenty of room to socialise whilst creating homecooked meals. The kitchen is fitted with a range of classic white units and compliments by a range-style cooker. Two window nooks are nestled under the windows, an ideal spot to sit and enjoy your favourite tippie.

The elegant and classy décor continues into the boot room, with space and plumbing for a washing machine and drier, with storage space and a display cabinet. The boot room offers excellent versatility, which could serve as a dining area, snug or garden room. A traditional stable door opens directly onto the rear garden, creating an easy connection between indoor living space and the outdoor surroundings.

Upstairs

The first floor is well-arranged across an unusually spacious landing that incorporates a range of built-in storage cupboards. The accommodation is presented in the light and neutral palette of the home, this enhances the sense of space and allows the original features to take centre stage. The principal bedroom is particularly generous, with dual aspect windows providing pleasant views across the garden. Period features are continued with ornate exposed Purbeck stone walls, attractive Victorian fireplace and timber flooring. The second bedroom is another good-sized double room, with a pretty window seat and space for a large TV and storage. Bedroom three is again, well-proportioned, making ideal guest accommodation or a home office. The room is filled with natural light and there is convenient built in storage. The family bathroom has been recently updated in a traditional style that compliments the character of the cottage. It comprises a panelled bath with shower over, pedestal wash basin, and W.C. An additional, separate W.C., and washbasin, provides further convenience and privacy.

Outside the cottage is set within extensive and thoughtfully landscaped grounds, which back onto open farm land. The front garden is paved with beautiful Purbeck stone, raised walls and seating create an inviting space, and established planted and potted shrubs provide a sense of charm. Adjacent to the cottage is a substantial double garage with a loft room, which is ideal as a home office or further storage. This then leads effortlessly into the stunning rear garden, which is laid to lawn which includes a variety of mature trees, and established shrubs, along with a productive kitchen garden. A potting shed and greenhouse cater perfectly for those with a keen interest in gardening. The garden also boasts a Purbeck stone patio, ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining.

Notably, a stone bench sits under a pink blossom tree, and surrounding flower beds add a whimsical feel to the garden. The South-Easterly aspect floods the garden in sunshine, making this an idyllic spot to relax.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a modernised, beautifully presented home, with charming characterful features, and stunning contemporary design, all whilst being just a short distance away from the seaside town of Swanage, and the historically rooted cobbled streets of Langton Matravers.
