Daniels are delighted to offer this well-positioned three-bedroom semi-detached family home, offered to the market with the benefit of no upper chain. Situated on this popular residential road, the property offers excellent potential for further enlargement, with scope for both a rear extension and loft conversion, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The property features two separate reception rooms, providing versatile living accommodation, while off-street parking to the front adds further convenience.

Medway Gardens is a popular residential road, particularly sought after by families due to its excellent selection of local schools. Sudbury Primary School and St George's Primary School are both within close proximity, making the location especially appealing to families.

Transport links are another key advantage, with the property conveniently located approximately equidistant between Sudbury Town and Sudbury Hill Piccadilly Line stations, providing easy access into Central London. A range of bus services operate from nearby Harrow Road, offering connections throughout Sudbury, Greenford and Wembley.

With generous existing accommodation, off-street parking and excellent potential for future enlargement, this property represents an exciting opportunity to create a fantastic family home in a popular and well-connected location.
