Tubbs Lane Highclere Hampshire RG20 9PP

A five bedroom detached period house located in the sought-after village of Highclere, tucked away down a quiet lane off a prestigious residential road. The property offers great potential to extend (subject to the usual consents) whilst other benefits include a plot exceeding half an acre in size, driveway parking, garage and some original period features. The spacious accommodation comprises porch, entrance hall, sitting room with fireplace, three double bedrooms, family bathroom with separate shower enclosure, cloakroom, utility, kitchen/breakfast room with larder, dining room and sun room. Upstairs there is a spacious double bedroom with fitted wardrobe, a further bedroom, a family bathroom and loft storage space. Externally there is ample driveway parking, a tandem garage and beautiful mature gardens at both the front and back of the house with established trees and shrubs, ornamental ponds and a swimming pool which is fenced off from the rest of the garden. Highclere is conveniently located just south of the market town of Newbury with excellent road links nearby including the A34 and M4 motorway.
