The Old Water House, Burnley Road, Loveclough, Rossendale is quite possibly, the most comprehensive and spacious home on the local market today. Fine & Country Rossendale & North Manchester are delighted to bring this property to the open market for the first time ever, since its conversion to residential use.

With over 10,000sqft of accommodation provision, this is truly an extremely generous property with outstanding scope too. Currently configured with 6 bedrooms, there are also multiple reception, some of which could easily be used as bedrooms without compromise, while the swimming pool & sauna are the main areas of the leisure suite. On the practical side, the two kitchen areas, separate pantry and further separate utility offer excellent scope for either daily or special occasion provision.

A further possibility which is highly accomplished here, is the potential for use as a multi-generation home, with the perfect scope to cerate a ground floor, self-contained, 2 bedroom annexe if required. With the outstandingly spacious living space throughout, this property has so much to offer inside.

Moving outside, the theme of comprehensive coverage continues with property sitting within its 2 & 1/2 acre plot. With ample driveway parking provision to both the ground floor entrance and at the rear, on the lower ground floor level, the large integral garage also offers enclosed and secure parking space / storage too. The property is shrouded from the road by the mature hedging to the front and to the rear, the driveway leads on to extensive gardens and grounds, including the beautiful large pond. Beyond the gardens / grounds, surrounding fields set the property well within its environment too.

Without doubt, this incredible property is sure to offer every option required for such a variety of potential owners and in fact, with its huge square footage, the £s/SqFt ratio here is surprisingly economical. With such an exceptional set of features on offer, viewings here at The Old Water House are most highly recommended and are available now, subject to usual qualification and by appointment only, via our Rawtenstall office.
