Bank Street, Rawtenstall, Rossendale is a high street ground floor commercial / shop unit, offered for sale with a business tenant in situ on a long lease. Providing a great opportunity to acquire a town centre building in a prominent position with excellent passing trade, the property gives easy access to nearby parking, public transport and other road and motorway connections.

With the locally renowned local business already in situ, the property would be a good option for a buyer looking to purchase a commercial unit in the heart of Rawtenstall, as these seldom come to the market and of course, to begin receiving a rental return immediately.

For further details on the current lease etc, please contact our Rawtenstall office.
