This substantial parcel of land is accessed via gated entrance from Hollin Lane and has an access track leading around its western perimeter. The land is partially wooded with the remainder mainly covered in grass / scrub. The main elevation faces broadly south and the land is considered suitable for a range of purposes, subject to any necessary consents. Access to the land is via Hollin Lane itself, which sits close to nearby Alder Grange school, transport and commuter routes, housing in the popular area of Constable Lee and of course, Rawtenstall and Crawshawbooth centre which are both within easy reach.

For any further information, please contact our Rawtenstall office.
