Furnished double rooms available within a unique, well-managed shared home in Chelfham. All bills, council tax and broadband included, offering peaceful community-focused living close to Barnstaple.

Description

A unique and inspiring shared home, set within a beautiful natural setting in Chelfham, North Devon, offering furnished rooms within a well-managed HMO. This property is ideally suited to working professionals seeking a quieter, community-focused way of living, with strong transport links and access to nature.

The accommodation is arranged across a substantial heritage building and offers multiple furnished bedrooms. Residents benefit from multiple shared kitchens and multiple bathroom facilities, providing practical and comfortable shared living.

This is not a typical HMO. The Growforward Project offers a calm and restorative environment, best suited to individuals who value wellbeing, community and a more mindful lifestyle.
