This utterly charming property retains a wealth of period features, including a stunning inglenook fireplace and a wood-burning stove in the sitting room. These character elements are seamlessly blended with modern conveniences, such as the beautifully fitted kitchen/breakfast room, which opens onto a dining area and a lovely conservatory. The property also benefits from a cosy snug/family room within the Victorian part of the house, a utility room, and a downstairs bathroom.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom is located within the oldest part of the house and is a superb space, boasting a vaulted ceiling and exposed beams. There are two further double bedrooms, along with a smaller fourth bedroom/study, which is accessed via the family bathroom.

The property is tucked away up a little twitten (footpath), nestled among other attractive houses. The gardens are enclosed by high walls, accessed via gates, and lie to the north and south of the house. Both gardens are surprisingly private and have been landscaped for ease of maintenance.

Henfield is a thriving village, on the edge of the South Downs National Park. The house is within walking distance of St Peter's Primary School, the GP surgery and dentists. The leisure centre has a gym and tennis courts and offers a variety of classes. Bus services run to Brighton, Worthing, Horsham and Burgess Hill. The Downs Link cycle and footpath passes through the outskirts of the village, running from Shoreham to Guildford. After a long walk, pop into the Cabin at Berretts Farm, for tea, coffee, cake, and fantastic views. They even do pizza evenings in the summer months. Henfield has a wide range of shops, a Sainsbury's Local, several pubs, cafés and a public library. Just over a mile to the north, Sussex Prairie Garden is an eight acre naturalistic garden, open to the public, which also runs creative courses, and holds musical events and markets.
