

GENERAL INFORMATION

Situated on a development rich in local history, this home occupies the former Scarlets playing fields – a site that forms an important part of Llanelli’s heritage, hence the aptly named Stryd Bennett street.... The location offers more than just a place to live; it provides a lifestyle, with the beach and scenic coastal path both within easy walking distance.

Residents can enjoy a range of convenient local amenities nearby, including a small supermarket, a traditional fish and chip shop, and a restaurant, making everyday living both easy and enjoyable.

Llanelli town centre is just short drive away, while Trostre Retail Park is only a couple of miles from the property, offering a wide selection of shops and services. Excellent transport links are available, with main bus routes providing access to the town, retail park, schools, and colleges.

This well-connected yet coastal setting makes the property ideal for those seeking a balance of history, convenience, and seaside living
