52 Upper Moorgreen Road, Cowes

£450,000

This handsome detached family home is positioned in the popular Upper Moorgreen Road, with good access to the local schools and parks as well as the main Cowes and Newport bus routes. It has gas central heating; double glazing and has been beautifully styled to create a fabulous family living kitchen/dining area which flows seamlessly through the bi-fold doors to the rear garden. The home offers a separate sitting room; a good sized utility room and a ground floor cloakroom as well as four bedrooms - one en-suite and a first floor bathroom. There is block paved parking to the front of the home with an EV charging point, as well as a beautiful, long rear garden which is sunny and private. The garden has a gorgeous slate patio set outside the kitchen/dining room, with steps up to the main lawned garden which is bordered by very attractive planting. There is a good sized studio towards the end, with a second secret garden set behind it. Here you can find another shady dining patio and a working garden with vegetable beds and fruit trees. Freehold. Council Tax Band - D. EPC D- 65.
