Hibbert Homes are proud to present this exceptional Four Bedroom Link-Detached residence, located on Dean Road, Handforth. This stunning home has undergone extensive recent refurbishments by the current owners, creating a bespoke character throughout and boasting luxurious modern living. Dean Road finds itself just a gentle stroll's distance from Handforth Train Station, with Handforth high street also within close proximity, and Wilmslow town centre nearby too.

Dean Road comprises from an inviting hall upon entrance, displaying a bright decor, with a stylish downstairs w/c located within this part of the home too. Towards the right as you enter, a cosy front living room is found, displaying stunning panelled walls and drawing in high levels of natural light. The heart of the home is found at the rear, where a spacious and bespoke open plan kitchen is located, offering state-of-the-art inbuilt appliances, whilst sharing its space with a further large living/dining area. Two separate French Doors at the rear provide access to the garden, and further invite high volumes of natural light into this entire space. A storage/garage space on the left hand side of the property offers useful room for storage and holds an electrical charging point within too.

Heading upstairs, this home holds Four bedrooms, three of which are large double bedrooms, with the fourth useful as a potential office, as well as a further small room acting as a walk-in wardrobe. A highly modern main bathroom holds a large bath featuring a rain shower overhead with an attractive tiled finish.

This brilliant home holds a beautiful garden, presenting great privacy and an abundance of greenery, creating a fantastic spot to entertain guests, or simply enjoy some individual relaxation! The garden also backs onto The Parsonage Play Area which is a brilliant opportunity for dog owners looking for a place to take them on a walk, or families with children to enjoy the play area on offer!
