Hibbert Homes are delighted to bring this stylishly presented two bedroom terraced property to the market, located on Moorland Road, Woodsmoor. This home has been attractively finished by the current owner, and offers excellent levels of space throughout. Moorland Road is set just off the A6, providing convenience to multiple different locations, with excellent schools within very close proximity too.

This home comprises from a spacious and inviting hallway upon entrance, leading off into an open plan living space, with a cosy sitting spot at the front of the room, and space for a dining area in the middle. A bespoke kitchen featuring modern integrated appliances is found at the rear of the property, with a decorated basement accessed via the kitchen providing excellent storage space, or room for a potential home office.

Heading upstairs, two large double bedrooms are located, with the master bedroom found at the front of the property, offering exceptional space. A stunning modern main bathroom holds a large shower and free standing bath. A boarded attic is also included with this property, allowing excellent potential for conversion subject to planning permission!

This property possesses a beautiful garden space, capturing sun all day long and offering high levels of privacy, creating the perfect spot for entertaining guests or enjoying some personal relaxation! Off-road parking is found at the front of the property.
