

6 St. Johns View, Batley, WF17 8HR

£695

Hamond Estates is delighted to present this charming mid-terrace house located in the desirable area of St. Johns View, Batley. Built in 1899, this property combines character with modern living, offering a comfortable space for individuals or small families.

The home features a welcoming entrance porch that leads into a spacious living room, perfect for relaxation or entertaining guests. The separate kitchen provides a functional area for cooking and dining, ensuring that all your culinary needs are met.

Upstairs, you will find two well-proportioned bedrooms, ideal for restful nights, along with a conveniently located bathroom. The property also benefits from a cellar, providing additional storage space for your belongings.

